

Jewish Genealogical Society of Greater Boston

presents

Ask The Experts

Sunday, February 1, 2009

1:30–4:30 PM

Temple Emanuel, Newton Centre

Come problem solve with our experts. Learn how to get started or get over that “brick wall” in your family research. Visit various roundtables, some with computers connected to the Internet for online research. Beginners as well as more experienced attendees will be able to consult with experts for help with their family research.

Tables will be dedicated to:

- Immigration, Naturalization and Vital Records
- Getting started with Jewish genealogy (e.g., using the JewishGen and Steve Morse websites)
- Holocaust research (e.g., using the Internet and Transport Books)
- Austria-Czech Roundtable
- Galicia Roundtable
- German Roundtable
- Lithuania Vital Records
- Moldova/Bessarabia Roundtable
- Polish Roundtable
- Ukraine Roundtable
- Translation of foreign-language documents (e.g., Yiddish, Hebrew, Polish, German, Russian)

Participants can rotate to different roundtables to follow their interests. Genealogical reference materials will be available for perusal. So bring in your research questions and your foreign documents for translation. If you want help at the meeting in obtaining information about a relative, please try to have at least their name and their date and place of birth.

Temple Emanuel is at 385 Ward St., Newton Centre. For maps and detailed directions, visit our web page at <http://emanuel.jgsgb.org>.

Admission is free for members, $5 for non-members.
Refreshments will be served.

Upcoming programs:

- Mar. 1 Film: “Who Do You Think You Are? Natasha Kaplinsky” (Needham Library)
- Apr. 19 Michael Goldstein, “Genealogical Research in Israel”

The JGSGB is dedicated to helping people research their Jewish family history. It offers monthly educational programs, maintains an extensive collection of research materials, and publishes a journal, Mass-Pocha.
