presents

Lithuanian Jewry—Yesterday and Today

Dina Kopilevic

Sunday, April 6, 2003

1:30–4:30 PM

Temple Reyim, West Newton

Dina Kopilevic is the Secretary for Cultural, Public, and Educational Affairs at the Embassy of the Republic of Lithuania in Washington, DC. She will speak about the history of Lithuanian Jewry, the current Jewish culture in Lithuania, and travel for archival research and to visit one's ancestral home.

Born in Lithuania, Ms. Kopilevic received a Master's of Science Degree in Pharmacy from the Kaunas Medical Academy in 1988. Upon joining the Lithuanian Embassy in 2000, she became the only Jewish staff member. Ms. Kopilevic has been active in various Lithuanian Jewish cultural societies. Dina has accompanied her sister, Regina Kopilevic, the foremost Lithuanian Jewish research guide, on several of her guided tours.

Temple Reyim, 1860 Washington Street (Route 16), Newton, is near Newton-Wellesley Hospital and the Woodland stop on the Riverside Green Line, as well as a short ride from Route 128 at Exit 21.

Admission is free for members, $5 for non-members.

Refreshments will be served.

Upcoming programs:

May 4, 2003: Joyce Field, "Yizkor (Memorial) Books as a Resource for Genealogy"

June 1, 2003: Norm Morris, "Jewish Boston: Where We Once Walked"

The Jewish Genealogical Society of Greater Boston is a nonprofit organization of individuals interested in genealogical research. It conducts monthly educational programs.
