Hands-On Problem Solving in Jewish Genealogy

Special Help Session for Research and Translation

Sunday, February 13, 2011, 1:30 pm

Temple Emanuel, Newton Centre

Problem-solve with others who can help show you the way. Learn how to get started or get over that “brick wall” in your family research. Members will be able to consult with those more experienced for help with their family research.

A limited number of computer stations will be available, or bring your own laptops for online research.

Roundtables will be dedicated to the following topics:

- Country and region-specific research (e.g., Polish, Lithuanian, Galician, Ukrainian, Belarussian, Romanian, Moldovan, Bessarabian, German)
- Finding your ancestors using immigration, naturalization, and vital records
- Getting started with Jewish genealogy (e.g., using the JewishGen and Steve Morse web sites)
- Holocaust research (e.g., using the Internet, Yizkor books, Yad Vashem, Transport Books)
- Translation of foreign-language documents (Yiddish, Russian, German, French, Polish, Hebrew, Hungarian, Romanian)

Genealogical reference materials will be available for perusal.

Bring in your research questions and your foreign documents for translation.

Temple Emanuel is at 385 Ward St, Newton Centre, MA.

For detailed directions and maps, visit our web page at <http://emanuel.jgsgb.org>.

Admission is free for members, $5 for non-members.

Refreshments will be served.

Upcoming programs:

- Mar. 13 Marc Cutler, Splitting & Reconnecting—Finding our Jewish Relatives in South America
Apr. 24 Stephen Morse, Genealogy Search Tools

Beginning February 7th, the JGSGB and Hebrew College are offering a comprehensive introductory course on Jewish Genealogy at Hebrew College.

For details see <http://www.jgsgb.org/genealogyclass.html> .

The JGSGB is dedicated to helping people discover and research their Jewish family history. We offer monthly education programs and a comprehensive beginners’ course, maintain an extensive collection of research materials, and publish the award-winning journal Mass-Pocha.
