Research and Genealogical Networking Day

Sunday, December 5, 2004

1:30–4:00 PM

Temple Reyim, Newton

Join other members who are researching family roots from your ancestral areas in one-hour roundtable discussions. Discover the ancestral towns and family names your fellow members are researching. Share your successes and get advice from others on how to overcome obstacles in exploring your roots and connecting with living relatives. Roundtables will be set up to cover the following Special Interest Groups: Belarus, Bohemia-Moravia, Galicia, German, Litvak, Poland, Ukraine, and the U.S. Other roundtables will be formed if there is interest.

After the roundtable discussions, genealogical books, including some brought in from our collection at AJHS, will be available for your perusal. Translators will be on hand to help decipher those difficult documents you've been waiting to interpret.

Temple Reyim, 1860 Washington Street (Route 16), Newton, is near Newton-Wellesley Hospital and the Woodland stop on the Riverside Green Line, as well as a short ride from Route 128 at Exit 21.

Admission is free for members, $5 for non-members.
Refreshments will be served.

Upcoming programs:

- Jan. 9 Robert Weinberg, "Jewish Genes and Genealogy" (Wellesley Free Library)
- Feb. 13 Jonathan D. Sarna, "Jewish Settlement Patterns in the US: Why Jews Ended Up Where They Did" (Wellesley Free Library)

The Jewish Genealogical Society of Greater Boston is a nonprofit organization of individuals interested in genealogical research. It conducts monthly educational programs.
